POCONO MANOR HISTORY

A group of friends in Philadelphia felt the need for a place where they could relax from the routine of everyday city life; ideally this place would be one of natural beauty in an environment conducive to the Quaker Spirit of Peacefulness. With this thought in mind, a call went out to the many Quakers and their friends to gather at the Twelfth Street Meeting House of the Society of Friends in Philadelphia on December 30, 1901. The purpose of this meeting was to consider the purchase of a tract of land on LITTLE POCONO MOUNTAIN, where our resort now sits today.

On August 15, 1902, the first manager of the inn arrived, Mrs. Mary Emma Wister. Pocono Manor first opened its doors to welcome guests the next day, on August 16, 1902. Over time our neighbors affectionately started referring to the resort as, "THE GRAND LADY OF THE MOUNTAINS."

POCONO MANOR RESORT & SPA has since earned a coveted designation on the National Registry of Historic Places. Our 240 guest rooms are decorated in keeping with the period style of our century-old hotel, but we strive to provide all the modern comforts of home, making Pocono Manor your home away from home. We hope you enjoy your stay with us and encourage your to ESCAPE NATURALLY, just as our founders once did.
