

Tech Report: Drone Hotel

By Mario Sevilla

Thu Jun 19th, 2014 9:17pm America/Los_Angeles

Like 95 people like this. Be the first of your friends.

SAUSALITO (KRON) — From the lobby of the Casa Madrona in downtown Sausalito right off the water, staff will fly a drone to the deck delivering whatever a guest wants, treats, drinks, and toys.

RELATED COVERAGE

- TECH REPORT

Eventually, the hotel sees using the drone to deliver items out to a boat on the bay.

If a guest wants champagne delivered to a spot near the water, or maybe a guest left their sunglasses in their room, a drone can help bring these items to guests quickly.

And now time for reality to come crashing down: flying drones is not cheap. In the near future it will be, but not yet.

Tech Report: Drone Hotel

0:00 / 2:25

YouTube

