SANTA YNEZ

Ranch Dressing

There's a particular charm to Alisal Guest Ranch & Resort and its time-honored traditions: men wearing jackets at dinner; blankets and log furnishings that would make rustic sophisticates envious; and the smoky, fragrant, Santa Maria-style barbecue from executive chef Pascal Godé. This Solvang lodging was updated last spring with the opening of the Alisal River Terrace, a space available for special events, even if you're not staying on the property. Indoor seating accommodates 60; terrace seating for 200; or a stand-up reception for 330. alisal.com.

SAUSALITO

SPECIAL DELIVERY At the just-renovated Casa Madrona in Sausalito, the 129-year-old mansion's room service department uses drones to assure complete privacy. This customizable airborne device can carry Champagne bottles and even rings straight to lovebirds. casamadrone.com.

Casa Madrona has views of Sausalito, Richardson Bay and the hills of Belvedere.

LOS ANGELES

It's the Bomba

Don't throw the rice—eat it! Paella Project chef Adriana Morera arrives with bomba rice, saffron and a pan almost the size of a coffee table. Her festive Valencian specialty is conducive to rehearsal dinners, while the hot tapas include crowd-pleasing Cabrales-stuffed warm dates wrapped in Serrano ham, and smoked shrimp pincho with mint-labneh chermoula. paellaproject.com.

GEYSERVILLE

Simply Floored

Three generations after Santi and Virginia Catelli opened The Rex in 1936, "Iron Chef" judge, cookbook author and chef Domenica Catelli, and her brother, general manager Nicholas Catelli, continue in their family's footsteps with a new chapter in Geyserville. Following two years of construction, Form interior design in Los Angeles has unveiled Catelli's Events. They have given the outdoor patio an angled modernist edge with a circular black-and-white floor, white walls and a stunning side bar. One thing that hasn't changed: their famous homemade ravioli. 707-857-3471; mycatellis.com.
