

Casa Madrona Hotel & Spa in Sausalito, California, Completes Renovation

Staff | May 6, 2014 | 0 Comments

Casa Madrona Hotel & Spa in Sausalito, California, has completed the renovation of its historic 11-room Mansion and meeting space. The launch of the Mansion includes the debut of the 5,000-square-foot Alexandrite Suite and 1,700 square-foot Junto meeting and event space.

"With a nod to the bayside location, the spaces are well-appointed and stylish, yet inviting and comfortable, featuring some of the world's most advanced technology systems," said Gary Gutierrez, president of MetWest Terra Hospitality. "Together, these elements not only change the landscape in luxury accommodations on the West Coast, but provide an inspiring travel experience unlike any other."

The Alexandra Suite offers advanced technology features, a private office, a gourmet kitchen and a personal fitness center. The Junto event space provides guests with panoramic views of the bay, a nine-panel media wall and multi-point videoconference capabilities.