Across the bay at Sausalito you'll find Casa Madrona (801 Bridgeway, Sausalito; www.casamadrona.com), lodgings located next to Poggio Trattoria (777 Bridgeway, Sausalito, +1 415 332 7771; www.poggio-trattoria.com), one of the region's top restaurants. Casa Madrona was built in 1885, and provides sublime views of San Francisco from many of its guest rooms, while the remaining ones are remarkably chic. The hotel offers quick and convenient access to both Sonoma Valley and Napa valleys, as well as dog-friendly facilities. Madrona's new 280-square-metre spa is something of a wonder itself, conceptually designed to lay guests at the mercy of the four elements.
